

1977

Northeasterners in the News- 1977

Shirley Harris

Follow this and additional works at: <https://neiudc.neiu.edu/inthenews>

---

Recommended Citation

Harris, Shirley, "Northeasterners in the News- 1977" (1977). Northeasterners in the News. 2.
<https://neiudc.neiu.edu/inthenews/2>

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Publications at NEIU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Northeasterners in the News by an authorized administrator of NEIU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact neiudc@neiu.edu.

A NEWS BUREAU REPORT

Shirley Harris, Editor
NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

NORTHEASTERNERS IN THE NEWS

January 24, 1977

DR. WESTBROOK WALKER, DR. ETHEL GREENE, NELSON ARMOUR, West Side Community Teacher Education Center (WSCTEC), and MRS. EUNICE HILL, concerned students of the WSCTEC, will appear on the program, "Learning Exchange," on WBEZ (91.5 FM), 8:45 a. m., February 8 and 10.

----

DR. BARBARA WINSTON, geography and environmental studies, is co-author of the article, "Membership in a Global Society; Implications and Instructional Strategies," appearing in the January issue of the Journal of Geography.

Dr. Winston will be conducting an environmental education workshop for the Illinois Office of Education program on "Responsibility in Education," March 10, in Decatur.

----

DR. JEAN GILLES, art, will participate in a panel discussion on women's studies in art at the College Art Convention, February 3, in Los Angeles.

----

DR. ANNE LEMBESIS, elementary education, has been invited to participate in an international conference on the communicative arts to be held in Florence, Italy. Dr. Lembesis, who was included in the third edition of The World Who's Who of Women, has been notified she also will be included in the fourth edition.

----

DR. JACQUELINE KRUMP, English, is a member of the program committee of the newly-formed Midwest Victorian Studies Association. The committee is preparing for two events, a three-day meeting in conjunction with the Victorian periodicals group in the fall of 1977 and a conference for Victorian studies alone in the spring of 1978.

----

(over)

DR. NEAL TREMBLE, director of health, physical education, recreation, and athletics, presented a paper, "The Role of the College Health Educator in the Prevention of Cardiovascular Problems," at the Mid-America College Health Association's annual meeting, December 3, at Northern Illinois University. Dr. Tremble also attended the President's Summit Conference on Intercollegiate Athletics, December 5 - 7, in Denver.

-----

DR. ELEONOR PRUESKE, health education, was elected vice president of the Mid-America College Health Association at its recent annual meeting.

-----

DR. FRANK HOSTETLER, health education, was the chairperson for the workshop session at the Mid-America College Health Association's annual meeting.

-----

REBECCA MOSKOWITZ, psychology, conducted two workshops on "Roleplaying: A Creative Technique for Theatre Majors," for the Illinois High School Theatre Festival, January 8, at Illinois State University, Normal. More than 100 high schools were represented at the week-end festival designed to "promote the support, improvement, and expansion of quality programs in high school and encourage theatrical efforts". The festival is co-sponsored by the Illinois Office of Education, the Illinois Theatre Association, and Illinois State University.

-----

DR. VERN BRAUN, extensions and continuing education, attended the Illinois University Extension and Continuing Education meeting at Illinois State University, Normal, January 10 and 11.

-----

A NEWS BUREAU REPORT

Shirley Harris, Editor
NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

NORTHEASTERNS IN THE NEWS

February 7, 1977

DR. HARRY A. BROADD, art, has written an article, "Congratulations Abe, on Your 168th Birthday," which is scheduled to be published by Lerner Newspapers the weekend of February 12. Dr. Broadd's story is an imaginary conversation with Lincoln telling him the history and artistic qualities of the six full-length bronze statues dedicated to him in the Chicago area.

-----

DR. ANTHONY KOPERA, psychology, is serving as moderator on a panel dealing with career opportunities for persons with bachelor's degrees in psychology, February 19, at Pere Marquette Center, Loyola University, 820 North Rush St. The workshop is part of a career day sponsored by the student development committee of the Illinois Psychological Association.

-----

JANICE DAWSON, student activities, will be the chairperson for a workshop, "Beyond the Looking Glass: Dealing with Special Groups," at the Association of College Unions-International conference, March 6 - 9, in San Diego. The workshop will examine the needs of minority students and the responsibility of the union and activities office to identify and address these students' needs.

-----

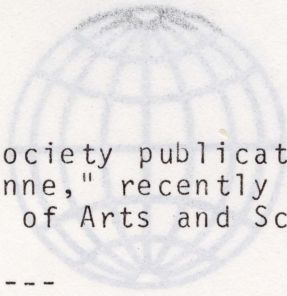

JOSIANE CARON, women services, will conduct a workshop, "From May to December," at the 1977 Girl Scouts of Chicago leaders' conference, 9 a. m. - 4 p. m., March 19, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. The workshop will be about available women's health services and include information on child bearing, menopause, self-examination, female physiology, nutrition, and exercise.

-----

DR. JOSEPH BEAVER, linguistics, will give a talk illustrated with slides and tapes on "Sonographs and Bird Identification" before the Evanston-North Shore Bird Club, 7:30 p. m., March 22, at the Evanston Public Library.

Dr. Beaver's article on the same subject, "Sonographs as an Aid in Bird Identification," appeared in the October, 1976 issue of American Birds, an Audubon Society publication. A monograph of his, "The Prosody of John Donne," recently was published under the auspices of the UNI College of Arts and Sciences.

(over)

-----

EUGENE MILLER, business and management, is included in the new edition of Who's Who in America. This is the 14th year he has been included in Who's Who in the Midwest.

-----

FOTIOS LITSAS, foreign language, was chairman of a session at the Modern Greek Literature and Culture conference, February 4, 5, and 6 at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio.

###

-----

DR. ANTHONY KOPERA, psychology, is serving as moderator on a panel dealing with career opportunities for persons with bachelor's degrees in psychology, February 19, at Pere Marquette Center, Loyola University, 820 North Rush St. The workshop is part of a career day sponsored by the student development committee of the Illinois Psychological Association.

-----

JANICE DAWSON, student activities, will be the chairperson for a workshop, "Beyond the Looking Glass: Dealing with Special Groups," at the Association of College Union-International conference, March 6 - 9, in San Diego. The workshop will examine the needs of minority students and the responsibility of the union and activities office to identify and address these students' needs.

-----

JUSTINE CARON, women services, will conduct a workshop, "From May to December," at the 1977 Girl Scouts of Chicago leaders' conference, 9 a. m. - 4 p. m., March 19, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel. The workshop will be about available women's health services and include information on child bearing, menopause, self-examination, female physiology, nutrition, and exercise.

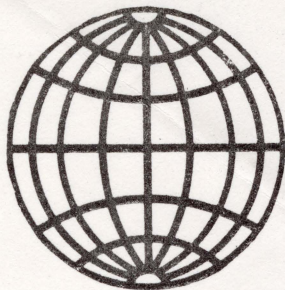

-----

DR. JOSEPH BEAVER, linguistics, will give a talk illustrated with slides and tapes on "Sonographs and Bird Identification" before the Evanston-North Shore Bird Club, 7:30 p. m., March 22, at the Evanston Public Library. Dr. Beaver's article on the same subject, "Sonographs as an Aid to Bird Identification," appeared in the October, 1976 issue

(over)

A NEWS BUREAU REPORT

Shirley Harris, Editor
NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

NORTHEASTERNERS IN THE NEWS

February 28, 1977

DR. ANGELINA PEDROSO, foreign language, has been selected by Miriam Cruz, administrative assistant to the mayor of Chicago, to be the key speaker at the National Conference of Puerto Rican Women, March 2, in Chicago. Dr. Pedroso's topic will be "Puerto Rican Women: Self-Images and Realities."

-----

DR. CHARLES PASTORS, political science, will welcome members of the Chicago Region American Academy for Professional Law Enforcement when they meet at Northeastern Illinois University, March 5, for a full day's symposium on "Law Enforcement Professionalization." Dr. Pastors is a member of the symposium committee.

-----

CLARICE HALLBERG, art, is serving on the State of Illinois teacher education program approval section for art education programs, February 27 - March 2, at Northern Illinois University, De Kalb.

-----

DR. BATISTA GALASSI, foreign language, is listed in the first edition of the Italian-American Registry which is devoted to identifying and honoring cultural leaders in the Italian-American society. The first edition, which concentrates on the Chicago area, is to be expanded into a comprehensive list of Italian and Italian-American leaders in Illinois.

-----

DR. STEVEN RIESS, history, has an article, "Race and Ethnicity in American Baseball, 1900 - 1919," published in the winter edition of the "Journal of Ethnic Studies."

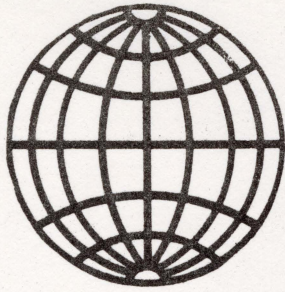

-----

DR. NANCY GREEN, educational foundations, has an article, "Do I Belong in College?", published in the winter edition of "Community College Frontiers."

####

A NEWS BUREAU REPORT

Shirley Harris, Editor
NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

NORTHEASTERNERS IN THE NEWS

March 21, 1977

The play of DR. ALLEN BATES, English, "Bless Us Gently, Satan," continues for one more week at the Barry Street Loft Theatre where it has been playing to standing room only houses and is the largest money maker in the theatre's nine-year history. RICHARD HESLER, speech and performing arts, is director; DURWARD REDD, speech and performing arts, is designer; HOWARD M. SANDROFF, music, is in charge of music and sound design, and choreography is by LYNDIA MARTHA, graduate student.

Bates' latest play, "Allegra," will open, April 14, for a limited run at the Circle Repertory Theatre in New York City.

-----

DR. ANGELINA PEDROSO, foreign language; DR. HAROLD HILD, English language program, and DR. HARRY WHITE, English, represented Northeastern Illinois University at the Remedial Development Studies in Post-Secondary Education Conference, March 17 and 18, sponsored by Chicago State University. The conference focused on some exemplary programs which have emerged, and drew attention to the future direction for remedial developmental studies.

-----

JAMES MCGREGOR, library, has an article, "Northeastern Illinois University Library," in the Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science, Volume 20, which was published, March 15.

-----

DR. LEVI LATHEN, special education, was a principle speaker at the vision and reading forum sponsored by the Illinois Optometric Association held March 5 at the Holiday Inn O'Hare. Dr. Lathen's topic was "Public Law 94-142, A Call for Accountability in Special Education." More than 600 parents, optometrists, and educators attended the conference.

-----

DR. FERYDOON FIROOZI, economics, will present a paper, "The Middle East Industrialization," in the session on petroeconomics at the Western Economic Association meetings in Anaheim, California, June 20 - 23.

###

A NEWS BUREAU REPORT

Shirley Harris, Editor
NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

NORTHEASTERNERS IN THE NEWS

April 4, 1977

DR. MAURICE GUYSENIR, secondary education, will speak on "The Value System of Lawrence Kohlberg" at the convention of the Illinois Council for the Social Studies, May 6, in Champaign.

DR. REYNOLD FELDMAN, center for program development, will serve on the North Central visitation team for Mather High School, May 17 - 20.

DR. PERI GEORGIU, early childhood education, CLARICE L. HALLBERG and LAVERNE ORNELAS, art, are presenting the five-year study of their interdisciplinary method of teaching art and music to young children at the National Art Education Convention, today, April 4, at the Sheraton Hotel, Philadelphia.

Georgiou and Hallberg conducted two workshops on an "Interdisciplinary, Team-Taught, Integrated Approach to the Teaching of Art and Music Methods to Teachers of Young Children" at the Delta Kappa Gamma Lambda state convention, March 26, in St. Louis.

Hallberg served on the North Central visitation team for Foreman High School, March 22 - 25.

DEAN RANDOLPH HUDSON, Arts and Sciences, DR. HAROLD HILD, DR. AUDREY REYNOLDS, GRADUATE ASSISTANTS THOMAS WEIDNER AND DIANE SMIETANA, English language program, attended the 28th Annual Conference on College Composition and Communication, March 31 - April 2, in Kansas City, Missouri. Hudson was chairman of a session, "TESOL (teaching English as a second language) Theory and Practice," at which Hild and Reynolds delivered papers.

DR. JEAN GILLIES, art, recently was chosen by an American Association of State Colleges and Universities committee to serve on a National Endowment for the Humanities grant proposal review panel.

DR. ARNOLD JONES, affirmative action, is the new president of the National Association of Affirmative Action Officers.

(over)

DR. WILLIAM M. WALSH, counselor education, spoke, March 18, to the faculty of Santa Maria School, Chicago, and, March 24 and 25, to some 1500 teachers, administrators, and special service personnel of the Northfield Township school districts. His topic was "An Introduction to Family Therapy."

AUDREY EWING, special education, joined Senator Percy and members of the business, banking, education, and civic action communities at a small luncheon, March 18, in honor of Dr. E. F. Schumacher, author of "Small is Beautiful," who was in Chicago for some speaking engagements. Dr. Schumacher planned to meet with President Carter in Washington before returning to England.

DR. GEORGE GRIMES, student teaching, DR. MARGARET LINDMAN, elementary education, and DR. ETHEL GREENE, teacher centers program, conducted a workshop on "The Student Teacher and the Challenge of Integration," at the Illinois Association of Teacher Educators, March 11, at Evanston Township High School.

VALESKA NAJERA, DR. ANGELINA PEDROSO, and DR. RODRIGO GONZALEZ, foreign languages, were judges at the annual foreign language poetry contest at Madame Curie High School, March 9. Gonzalez served on the North Central evaluation team for St. Scholastica High School, February 14 - 17.

DR. BERNARD J. BROMMEL, speech and performing arts, presented three workshops on "Barriers to Effective Communication," at a recent two-day institute, "Focus on Teachers," held at Glenbrook South High School, Glenview. The institute was sponsored by the educational service region of Cook County and was attended by more than 1500 teachers.

###

A NEWS BUREAU REPORT

Shirley Harris, Editor
NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

NORTHEASTERNERS IN THE NEWS

April 11, 1977

ALBERTO MATA, sociology, is a member of the faculty for the Mini-Pastoral Course, April 11 - 22, sponsored by the Midwest Hispanic Institute, Mundelein College, held at the college. The course gives participants a broad look at the situation of the Hispano in the Midwest and acquaints them with the varying forms of service Hispanos may need.

DR. WILLIAM HOWENSTINE, geography and environmental studies, will be the chairman of a session at the Fourth Inter-University Energy Conference, April 26 - 28, in Champaign.

DR. ROSALYN O'CHERONY, foreign language, will serve on the North Central visitation team for DuSable High School, April 12 - 14.

DR. EUGENE MC ARDLE, biology, who has been on sabbatical leave since January 1, has been busy. He presented a program, "Pleistocene Ecology of the Chicago Area," to the Prairie Woods chapter of the National Audubon Society, March 10, in Arlington Heights. On April 15, he will have completed a three and one half month research project conducted as visiting research associate in the division of biology and medicine at Argonne National Laboratory, Argonne, involving use of the electron microscope to discover rhythms in the secretion of the enzyme adenyl cyclase. May 1, he begins a two-month appointment as visiting research associate in the department of zoology, Ramsey College, The University of Toronto, Canada.

DR. MICHAEL BELICA and DR. CHRISTINE C. SWARM, instructional media, and DEANNA SELTZER, a graduate student, are conducting a media workshop, 8:30 a. m. - 12:15 p. m., May 7, in the classroom building on the campus. The workshop is sponsored by the Northeastern Illinois University instructional media program and the Chicago Teacher-Librarians' Association. Belica's topic is "Non-Print Local Production: Dry Mounting and Laminating;" Swarms', "Choosing Readable Books for Today's Children," and Seltzer's, "Learning Games and Fun Activities for the Library Media Center."

(over)

DR. SUE SHERIDAN WALKER, history, is the new book review editor of the "American Journal of Legal History" of Temple University school of law.

DR. CHRIS C. SHERVANIAN, psychology, has written a textbook, "Introduction to Communicative Disorders," in conjunction with Dr. Margaret C. Byrne, Northwestern University. It is published by Harper and Row and recently was released.

DR. DONALD HOFFMAN and THOMAS HOBERG, English, DR. FRIEDERIKE WIEDEMANN, foreign language, and ROZALYN LEVIN, student, participated in what was described as a "Tristan Blitz" at the Second Triennial Congress of the International Courtly Literature Society, March 31 - April 2, at the University of Georgia, Athens. Hoffman's paper was "Cult and Culture; 'Courtly Love' in the Cave and the Forest;" Hoberg's, "How Tristan Becomes Tristram: The Birth of an Epic Hero in a Romance Tradition;" Wiedemann's, "From Victim to Villain: King Mark," and Levin's, "The Potion of Fate: The Love Philtre in the Tristan Legend."

NANCY SPENCER, anthropology, participated in a conference, "Kinship, Politics, and Economics in Classical Greece," sponsored by Princeton University, April 1 and 2, at Princeton.

DR. HUMPHREY STEVENS, elementary education, was general chairman of the North Central Association accreditation team at Flower Vocational High School, March 28 - 31.

###