LINCOLN CENTRE

DRUG RAP SESSION RESULTS FROM POLL

The rap session on drugs, 1 p. m., tomorrow, January 26, in the Little Theatre is a result of a poll taken of students who attended the film, "Drugs in the Tenderloin", shown last trimester at the college.

The film was sponsored by the counseling center which also is sponsoring the rap session.

APPROVE LINCOLN CENTRE RENOVATION

The board of governors of state colleges and universities approved the renovation of Abraham Lincoln Centre, 700 East Oakwood blvd., the locale of the Center for Inner City Studies, while meeting in Chicago, January 13.

Work on the first phase of the construction is scheduled to begin in the middle of May. This phase involves the installation of new elevators with necessary pits, machinery and control rooms, and elevator penthouse. Total construction cost of this phase is estimated at $2,286,710.

The plans of the renovated centre were developed to serve the existing and anticipated needs of the graduate program in urban education. Possible undergraduate classes and extended day activities also were given consideration.

When finished, the renovated building is expected to include 12 - 30 student classrooms, two 56 student lecture halls, 14 faculty offices, academic administration area, project administration areas, a 222 seat auditorium, three special classrooms, space for community education and recreation, pre-school childhood education for 30 students, a 123 student lounge, and a 45,000 volume materials resource center.

The anticipated completion date for the entire project is June, 1972.

If your news is not in the paper, quite likely it's because you haven't told us about it. Call Shirley Harris, Ext. 517 or send it to her through the campus mail to P6.

WANDERING AROUND CAMPUS

WITH THE EDITOR

Is 4000 years of White, European-American culture worth bigotry? Is there such a thing as 4000 years of this unsullied culture? If there is, do we need it?

Has the white community borrowed black culture or has black culture infiltrated white life style?

Are sensitivity groups an escape from responsible community action or preparation for it?

Does the popularity of sensitivity groups mean the younger generation is becoming more self-centered?

You may not find the answer you want, or even an answer, during Griff Pitts' coffee hour, but you certainly will hear the subjects kicked around. And it will start you thinking.

George Crowley, president of the football club, was in Pittsburgh, Pa. the week-end of January 9 attending the national convention of football clubs. The next week-end he was in Dubuque, Iowa attending a meeting of the mid-west college football clubs.

In the planning stage is a mid-west college football club conference to include, tentatively, NISC, Loyola, Chicago State, University of Chicago, Prairie State, Marquette, Loris, St. Benedicts, St. Louis, and the University of Detroit.

Our football team had a great season in 1970. We're looking forward to this year's games.

MODELING AND STUDYING MAKES A BUSY LIFE FOR ROSEMARY

A postage stamp or an occasional paper clip is the best most working girls can do by way of fringe benefits. Rosemary Jones, model, was given a vacuum cleaner after her stint at the recent housewares show at McCormick place.

Rosemary is a freshman at Northeastern majoring in elementary education. She says she promised herself a good education.

"Looks and a figure are fine but it's what's in your head that's important," she said.

Modeling is a beautiful life, according to Rosemary. She enjoys meeting people, hearing their views on life and about what they're doing.

She went to school to learn how to model when she was 13 years old and began her career when she was 15. She doesn't really need the money, she said, since she won second place in the debutante cotillion which gave her scholarship money for books and fees, and she has a teacher education scholarship which pays her tuition.

Rosemary continues to model while attending school because it is her profession, she says. She wants the experience and she wants to stay current in the field.

There are problems, however. She missed the first two days of school this trimester because she was working at the housewares show. Recently she had to turn down an opportunity to appear on the cover of "Coed" magazine because she would have had to go to New York City and would have missed school.

She plans to go to New York in August during her vacation, however, and perhaps the opportunity to appear on a cover will occur again.

"A cover is a big happening," she said.

Rosemary has very definite ideas about the importance of elementary education. She believes the elementary grades are the most important of a person's life and too few teachers care.

Rosemary cares.

DISCOUNT BALLET TICKETS HERE

Student discount tickets to the City Center Joffrey ballet appearing at the Auditorium theatre, Jan. 27 through Feb. 7, are available outside Carol Burke's office, E 214, in the student services area.

Four new productions are included in the programming: "Petrouchka" of Fokine - Benois Stravinsky; Todd Bolender's "The Still Point" to Debussy's string quartet; Gerald Arpino's "Solarwind" and his newest, "Trinity", to a jazz-rock score by Alan Raph and Lee Holdrige.

HOW WELL DO YOU READ?

You may not read as well as you think. Most of us could read faster and with more comprehension than we do. Why put up with such a handicap, especially going to college?

No need. Reading tests are being given at the reading center, 3307 Bryn Mawr ave., 1 p. m., January 26 and 28, February 2 and 4.

Report to the center at any of these times with a ball point pen or some sharpened pencils. The test takes about 45 minutes. You'll get the results in the mail within five days.

If you need some remedial instruction, sessions will be arranged. Reading laboratory hours for the winter trimester are 11 a. m. - noon, Mondays and Tuesdays and 10 a. m. - noon, Thursdays.

The discussion will be open-ended and unstructured so that any issue related to drugs can be frankly and honestly discussed.

A former drug addict of college age will coordinate the discussion.

The coordinator was addicted to barbituates for the better part of a year before going to the therapeutic community at Tinley Park. After leaving there, he continued as an out-patient for a time and now is a counselor at a North Side clinic where he works with young persons between the ages of 13 and 25.

He is well versed in the field of drugs. He knows what is being used, where to get it, and who is using it. He knows the peer group pressures confronting young persons today and speaks in the current idiom of his age group.

COUNSELING SERVICE PLANS HUMAN POTENTIAL SEMINARS

The counseling service will hold four seminars in human potentials during the last two weeks in February, two each week.

Open to any member of the student body who wishes to participate, the seminars are designed to help students gain better understanding of their strengths, values, and how these motivate them.

Attention will be given to setting up of realistic goals. Each participant will attempt to discover what motivates him, what success means to him; in short, discover himself.

A maximum of ten persons a group is planned.

Group leaders will be Dorothy McCreery, coordinator of academic advisement, Richard Chiles and Tom Johnson of the counseling staff; Griff Pitts, associate dean of students, and Steve Helfgott, a master's student at Northwestern University who is interning at Northeastern.
