1996 NORTHEASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY SOCCER OUTLOOK

Third Year Program Making Strides

The 1995-96 Northeastern Illinois University Men's Soccer Team established its position as one of Chicago's finest NCAA Division I programs. With victories over three of Chicago's four Division I universities, the Golden Eagles took a major step forward in only its second full season.

Although still in its "infancy", NEIU proved to be no child in the NCAA Division I ranks. With 12 of their 18 matches decided by a goal or less, the Golden Eagles were competitive far beyond their years.

The 1996-97 campaign sees the Golden Eagles Soccer Team return 10 lettermen. Although the majority of their roster will again consist of underclassmen, the Golden Eagles will return five Juniors and their first ever senior.

Coach Hannan's 1996-96 recruiting class continues to build upon his previous quality classes. This year's new student-athletes come to Chicago by way of Texas, Florida, Wisconsin, Greece and Southern parts of Illinois. These young men are expected to battle for starting roles.

The 1996-97 Northeastern Illinois University soccer season promises to continue to build upon its already impressive start. The secret is out that the Golden Eagle soccer program has high goals and ambitions and has every intention on keeping them. With exciting home dates at the PE Complex Fields, don't dare miss these men in action.
