FROM THE LANGUAGE TEACHING MATERIALS LABORATORY:

Our demonstration class in Language Development began Monday, January 20, with ten students from the neighborhood. Arrangements for visiting and observing this class may be made by contacting Grace Holt or Margaret Booth. Visits may be made beginning February 3rd.

The classes are held Monday-Thursday, 3:45-4:45 p.m. on the 6th floor of the Lincoln Centre.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

America Hurrah, a play which has proven to be the most controversial play about American values of the 1960's, will be performed for eight weekends only, January 17 through March 9, at Baird Hall Theatre, 615 West Wellington. Curtain time Friday and Saturday is 8:30 p.m., Sundays - 7:30 p.m.

The Chicago City Players are offering a special group rate for students and faculty of Chicago area educational institutions. Groups of 20 or more with reservations made and paid for at least one week in advance, will be admitted for $1.50 per person. Special student group rate applies to all performances except opening night, which is a benefit.

*****

The Constitution Test will be held Saturday, February 22, 1969, at Northeastern Illinois State College in the Little Theatre at 10:00 a.m.
