C A M P U S T O D A Y

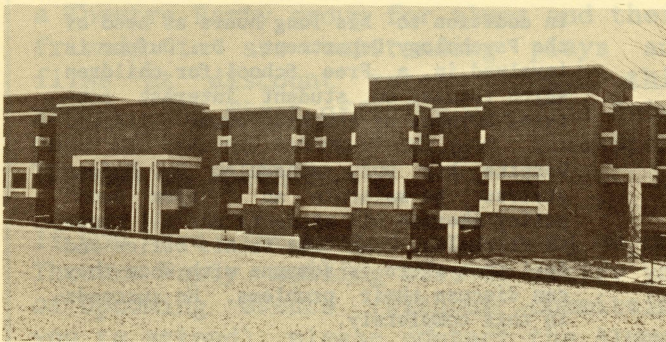

Have you been on campus lately? If you have, you may have noticed that the campus has changed considerably during the last few years. This is due to the addition of two new buildings on campus: The Science Building and the Classroom Building.

No longer do students have all their classes in the good ol' A and B wings. Instead, Northeastern has taken on the looks of a campus with students going to the various buildings for their classes.

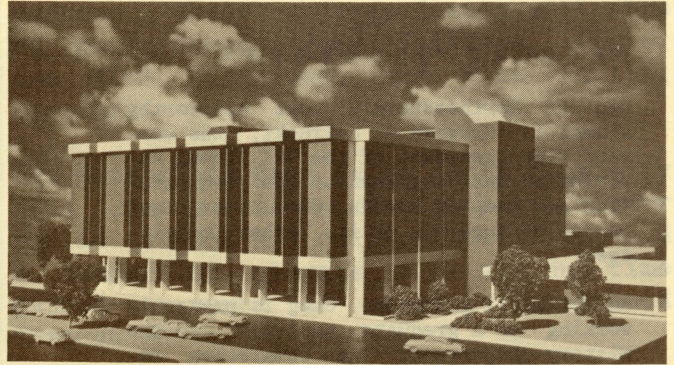

June 2, 1971 marks the day that the ground was broken for the Science Building which is located on the southeast side of the campus on St. Louis Avenue. Classes started there during the Spring 1972 trimester. This 3-story building was officially dedicated on October 2, 1972.

The Science Building houses the departments of Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, Economics, Environmental Studies, Geography, Mathematics, Psychology, and Physics.

The University received an award from the Chicago Lighting Institute for interior lighting in the building on March 15.

SCIENCE BUILDING

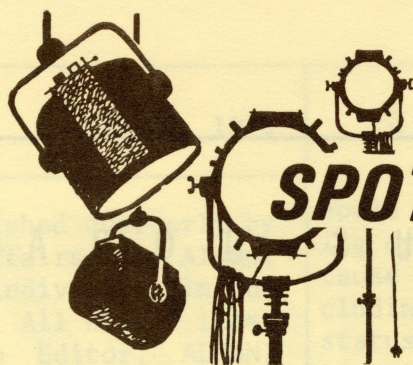

CLASSROOM BUILDING

Ground was broken for the Classroom Building on January 4, 1971. This 4-story building is located on Bryn Mawr Avenue, east of the parking lot. Classes started there during the Winter 1973 trimester. The building was officially dedicated on April 2, 1973.

This building is the home of the College of Arts and Sciences and houses the departments of Anthropology, Computer Science, English, Foreign Language, History, Linguistics, Political Science, and Sociology. It is also the home of the College of Education and the departments of Early Childhood Education, Educational Foundations, Elementary Education, Secondary Education, Special Education, and Student Teaching. The Graduate College is also located here. The offices of Instructional Media, Reading, Educational Assistance, Business and Purchasing can be found here.

In a future issue of ALUMNI NEWS, we will have a campus map to show you these areas in perspective to the rest of the campus.

We invite you to come back to campus ANY TIME to see how UNI has been and still is growing.

ALUMNI

FACULTY

GREGORY GOLINSKI

One of Northeastern's most noteworthy alumni is Gregory G. Golinski, the current Vice President of the UNI Alumni Association and chairman of its Constitution and Faculty Awards Committees and member of numerous of its other committees.

An April '71 graduate, Greg is presently working as a graduate assistant to the History Department and completing requirements for his Master of Arts degree at UNI.

In addition to numerous other accomplishments, Greg is the past president and current vice president of the Pi Gamma chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, delegate to the Commuter Center Ad Hoc Building Committee, graduate representative to the Commuter Center Board of Managers, and member of the UNI Presidential Selection Committee.

MARYANN GALL

Another of Northeastern's noteworthy alums is August '64 and August '66 graduate Maryann Gall, the current secretary of the UNI Alumni Association, chairman of the Publications and Continuing Education Committees, editor of Alumni publications including the ALUMNI NEWS, instructor of several Mini 'U' course offerings, member of numerous Alumni Association committees, and participant in numerous other Alumni endeavors.

MORRIS SOTONOFF

Still another of Northeastern's noteworthy alumni is Alumni Association Treasurer and Membership Committee chairman Morris L. Sotonoff, an April '71 graduate currently finishing up his Master's thesis in Earth Science at UNI.

Morry is an apprentice pharmacist and high school and junior college teacher in the areas of chemistry and geology.

Morry is also field trip chairman of the Illinois Association of Earth Science Teachers, member of the American Chemical Society, and member of the UNI Save-the-Environment Committee.

Maryann Gall (Aug. '64 and Aug. '66)

Dr. Victor Dufour is on campus an average of fifty to sixty hours per week. While in his office, one gets the feeling that he is not a department head who hides behind paperwork. A steady stream of students walk in to ask questions, say "hello", and to borrow books. The Psychology Department library is located in his office so that he can keep in touch with students and offer them advice in their research.

Dr. Dufour has several basic theories concerning college life; the main premise being that schools should be geared more completely to students' learning; after all, a school's end product is what it has done for its students. He believes a curriculum should be guided by the students, for the students.

Dr. Dufour's time is spent on student related work ---- clubs, new programs, curriculum, and, of course, teaching.

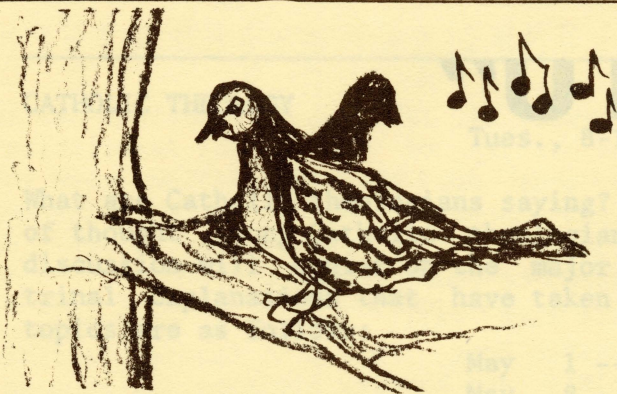

He is actively involved as a consultant to the Parapsychology Club, a lively group whose members pursue their interests in the science of learning about and studying psychic phenomena. He is also the campus advisor to Psi Chi, the National Honor Society in Psychology.

In addition to his long hours as head of the Psychology Department, Dr. Dufour is involved in a Free School for children which focuses on student interest centered methods of teaching young children.

Despite his busy schedule, Dr. Dufour strives to maintain an "open door" policy wherein his students and all those in Psychology can come to his office and feel that there is someone with whom they can discuss their problems. He succeeds in this completely.

At the December 18, 1972 Northeastern Illinois University commencement, Dr. Dufour received the Faculty Member of the Year Award presented by the Alumni Association.

Avis Thornton (April '71)

The D.A.N.K. SPATZEN CHILDREN'S CHOIR, which means German-American Sparrows, was founded by Alexandra Pradella (April '72) in 1968 while she was attending Northeastern. The children, having at least one German-born parent, are students of the German-American Saturday School. The children's choir consists of 60 children of which only 30 sing publicly. Their ages are from 6 to 14 years. They appear in their native dress. The group appeared on Channel 7's "Kennedy at Night" and on Channel 11 on Christmas Eve, 1972.

Now you are fortunate enough to have an opportunity to see and hear this talented group perform here at Northeastern on Thursday, May 17, 1973 at 7:30 P.M. in the auditorium in a program sponsored by the UNI Alumni Association.

Admission is FREE, and we hope you will join us to see and hear this unique group.

THEATRE PARTY GROUP

The UNI Alumni Association is sponsoring a Theatre Party group for alums and their friends to see outstanding plays and films at discount rates through this group. The first offering was "The Prisoner of Second Avenue" at the Blackstone Theatre on March 20.

If you are interested in being on our Theatre Party mailing list to notify you of upcoming events (without committing you to attend), please contact the Alumni Office (583-4050, Extension 270).

ALUMNI TO PERFORM

Three Northeastern alumni will be performing on Wednesday, May 16, 1973, with the Northshore Concert Band. Frank Fahrner, baritone horn (August '70), Norman Keller, flute (December '72), and Carol Russell, bass clarinet (December '72) will represent the alumni of Northeastern. Three undergraduates will also be performing: Joey Friedman, flute; Lee Kivi, clarinet; and Mike Kahles, clarinet.

The Northshore Band is an adult community band composed of music teachers, former public school and college musicians, and a number of players who at one time gained a part of their livelihood through music.

The Northshore Band has become nationally recognized through its performances at the Mid-East National Band Clinic, the American Bandmasters' Association Convention, the convention of the Music Educators National Conference, and through six performances at the Mid-West National Band Clinic. This year the band has traveled to Mississippi to perform in the Southern Bandmasters' Clinic.

The band, under the direction of John Paynter of Northwestern University, will be sponsored at UNI by CCAB - Concert Series. The program on May 16, will begin at 8:00 P.M. in the Northeastern Illinois University Auditorium. Admission is FREE.

Norman Keller (December '72)

IN MEMORIAM

It is with deep sympathy that we announce the death of Dr. Rafi Z. Khan on December 3, 1972. Dr. Khan, a former professor of Psychology and founder of the first Psychology Museum (located at Northeastern Illinois University) will be remembered for his great service to UNI as well as his relationship to its student body and faculty members. We have all suffered a profound loss.

"MINI U"

During the May-June trimester and the July-August trimester, the UNI Alumni Association will continue to present a new concept in educational programming, "Mini 'U'" ---- a mini university within the university. There will be three offerings during the May-June trimester: (1) ASTROLOGY: AN IN-DEPTH LOOK, (2) NUMEROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE, and (3) CATHOLIC THEOLOGY. There will be one offering during the July-August trimester: ASTROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE.

ASTROLOGY: AN IN-DEPTH LOOK

Section 1-Wed., 7-8 P.M., 8 weeks

Begins May 2, 1973

Section 2-Fri., 7-8 P.M., 8 weeks

Begins May 4, 1973

What is a chart? A horoscope? How do you set-up and interpret a chart? How can you be your own astrologer? If you would like the answers to these questions and be able to erect and interpret charts and set-up your own mini astrological computer, then this is the course for you. IF YOU HAVE NOT TAKEN "ASTROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE," YOU STILL CAN TAKE THIS ONE.

ASTROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE

Wed., 7-8:30 P.M., 6 weeks, Begins July 11, 1973

What is Astrology? What is a Sun Sign? Moon Sign? Rising Sign? If you would like to learn the answers to these questions and be able to chart your horoscope and the horoscopes of your family and friends, then this is the course for you because it will enable you to answer your own most important questions and will make you the "life of the party." IF YOU HAVE NOT TAKEN "ASTROLOGY: AN IN-DEPTH LOOK," YOU STILL CAN TAKE THIS ONE.

NUMEROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE

Section 1-Wed., 8-9 P.M., 8 weeks

Begins May 2, 1973

Section 2-Fri., 8-9 P.M., 8 weeks

Begins May 4, 1973

What is numerology? Why are numbers important in your everyday life? What is your life cycle number? What is your daily cycle number? If you would like to learn the answers to these questions and master the art of numerology to enable you to give "number readings" for yourself, family, and friends, then this is the course for you.

CATHOLIC THEOLOGY

Tues., 8-10 P.M., 6 weeks, Begins May 1, 1973

What are Catholic theologians saying? This course will investigate the currents of thought among Catholic theologians both in this country and in Europe. The discussion will center on the major shifts in emphasis in Roman Catholic doctrinal explanations that have taken place in the past five years. Discussion topics are as follows:

May 1 ----Can the Church's teaching change?
May 8 ----How about Papal infallibility?
May 15 --- Who is Jesus Christ?
May 22 --- Have we forgotten Original Sin?
May 29 --- What morality did Jesus teach?
June 5 --- How should we explain the Eucharist?

This course is open to all interested parties and does fulfill the theology course requirement of the Catholic School Board for teachers in Catholic Schools. Instructing the course will be Reverend John R. Price, M.A., UNI Campus Catholic Minister. Fee for the course is $10.00.

You will be awarded a certificate of accomplishment on completion of the requirements of any one of the following Mini 'U' offerings: ASTROLOGY: AN IN-DEPTH LOOK; ASTROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE; NUMEROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE. There will be no required materials for you to purchase and no required out-of-class assignments for these three courses. The instructor for each of these classes will be Maryann Gall (August '64, August '66). The registration fee is $10 per course; however, if you wish to register for both ASTROLOGY: AN IN-DEPTH LOOK and NUMEROLOGY: AN INTRODUCTORY COURSE at the same time, the fee is ---- no longer $10 per course or a total of $20 --- but instead BOTH COURSES FOR ONLY $16.

To register, complete the form and send it to the Alumni Office along with your check or money order before April 27, 1973 for the May-June offerings; and before July 3, 1973 for the July-August offering.

QUESTION:

On a recent visit to the campus, I was interested to note how the enrollment of Northeastern has increased over what it was when I was in attendance. What is the current enrollment?

ANSWER

Northeastern has experienced a steady growth since its early days. Below are the enrollment figures from September 1972:

ON CAMPUS

Undergraduates	4,750
Graduates	2,346

OFF CAMPUS (extensions and centers)

Undergraduates	38
Graduates	365

TAX EXPERT SPEAKS

Ben Fullett, Executive Vice President of Ruben Grais and Sons, Inc., discussed tax deduction provisions and the 1972 Federal Income Tax Returns at the Alumni Association's second Speakers Forum held in the UNI North Dining Hall on February 21, 1973.

The program opened with a welcome and introduction of the guest speaker by Alumni Association president Timothy J. O'Connell and proceeded with Mr. Fullett's presentation titled, "You and Your Taxes".

The presentation was followed by a question and answer period.

ALUMNI ART AWARD GIVEN

February 14, 1973 was an important day in the history of the Alumni Association. On that day the Association gave its first monetary grant to a Northeastern student and presented student recognition awards to four students.

This last fall, four art students --- Suzanne Borg, Philip D. Carlig, Patricia Helbig, and Roberta Steinway --- were selected to display their works in the Science Building. These students were selected for their superior and consistent work in art.

The Alumni Association decided to purchase one of their art works for the University Collection. During a ceremony on February 14, these four students were given student recognition awards by the Alumni Association.

It was also announced at that time that Patricia Helbig was the recipient of the $100.00 Purchase Award.

Guest speakers for the evening were President Sachs, Dr. Hudson, Dean of the College of Arts & Sciences, and Timothy J. O'Connell, President of the Alumni Association.

The Student Gallery Committee, under the chairmanship of Miss Patti Morooka; Mr. Alan Wallie, Chairman of the Art Department; and Miss Merrie Cutts, an instructor in the Art Department, helped the Alumni Association greatly in setting up this program.
