UNIVERSITY THEATRE COMPANY NEWSLETTER FALL '87

2 November 1987

Number 8

COMPANY GREATS!! Thanks to the considerable efforts of Donnette and Mary Beth in their ad-selling campaign, the Fall 1987 program contains short biographies of the participants. Some never turned in the requested information, so don't complain if the information isn't as you might wish. THANKS FOR A JOB WELL DONE, DONNETTE AND MAY BETH.

COMPANY COMPS: Each member of the Fall University Theatre Company is entitled to two complimentary tickets for DRACULA and for IF YOU COULD SEE WHAT WE HEAR... The Box-office has a list with your name on it--just tell them when you're using your comps. And don't forget, your current ID gets you a free ticket also.

COMPANY OPENING: Let's all support the opening night of DRACULA on November 5th (Thursday). If you haven't picked up your tickets, better hurry--less than 40 remain for November 5. There will be a champagne reception following the opening in the lobby of the Stage Center. REMEMBER TO TELL ALL YOUR FRIENDS THAT LATECOMERS WILL NOT BE ADMITTED, INCLUDING FAMILY.

THE COMPANY YOU KEEP: It's time to meet the ole blood-sucker himself--D R A C U L A--in the person of gentle MARK ALEXANDER CLOVER. Come to think of it, being a former salesman and current Student Senator probably was good preparation for this juicy role. Mark has done stand-up comedy for 2 1/2 years, starting out as M C and then advancing to opening act. He appeared as Horster in AN ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE and Orlando in AS YOU LIKE IT last season, and did sound and set construction for LONE STAR and set construction for LAST DANCE. He sees his future involving writing, performance, production and directing, and then--the greatest acting arena of all--politics.

CHUCK UCHIDA has created the sound tape for DRACULA and will be operating sound during the run of the show. Chuck is station manager of WZRD. A Speech and Performing Arts major, currently starring in Intro to Theatre Section 02, Chuck has worked in various positions in the entertainment field from technician to performer. His career goals are in the area of broadcasting.

REMEMBER--Only three days and DRACULA strikes his first victim!!
