Civil Service

The register is closed for openings. All positions either are filled or candidates being interviewed.

Now would be a good time to take examinations either in your promotional line or in another class for which you meet qualifications. Contact Diane Langridge at extension 388 to discuss possible promotional opportunities.

With the Faculty

DR. GEORGE E. GEYER, newly appointed associate dean of the graduate college, began his duties June 1. Dr. Geyer previously was a visiting professor of philosophy at Loyola and Marquette universities. Prior to that, he was director of integrated liberal studies at St. Anselm's College, Manchester, New Hampshire.

GERALD BUTLER, assistant to the dean of the graduate college, received his doctorate in education from the University of Massachusetts, May 31. Dr. Butler will remain at NISC as a member of the physical education department faculty beginning fall trimester.

OUR SYMPATHY

To Dr. Shirley Castelnuovo, assistant professor of political science, whose husband, John, died May 26.

To
Your Health
By Marion Etten

Did you know that barbituates, (seconals - red birds - red devils - goof balls - barbs) sell for 25¢ a piece or a "rack of 5 for $1," on elementary and junior high school playgrounds and premises? Mr. David Smith, director of Haight-Ashbury Medical Clinic said so at a meeting on May 17th of the Illinois Medical Society. Ever wonder what your son or daughter's allowance buys? Dr. Smith also claims the greater numbers of youthful drug addicts are now coming from the homes of doctors and professors.

Planned Parenthood's 1970 Annual Report says there are 300,000 out-of-wedlock children born annually in the U.S.A.; 50% of them to teen-agers.

Also -- one fifth of births to married couples in the 1960's were unwanted. Obviously, birth rate control knowledge is not yet widely understood.

The Food and Drug Administration rule requiring all eyeglasses lenses manufactured to be impact resistant or shatter-proof, will become effective December 31, 1971.

Northwest Federal Savings at 4901 West Irving Park is sponsoring a "I Quit Smoking" clinic in their Community Room, lower level, Thursdays, May 27th and June 3rd. To register call Esther Brewer, Sp 7-7200.

The graduate college hours during June are 9 a. m. - 8 p. m., Monday through Thursday; 9 a. m. - 6 p. m., Friday.

During July and August, the hours will be 9 a. m. - 6 p. m., Monday through Friday.

CAREER COUNSELOR

Are you willing to learn about alternatives to teaching? Today, June 7, Doris Gleason, representative of the Illinois Medical Record Association, will be in room E 128 to talk with men and women interested in hospital and health careers. The placement office has 22 different leaflets outlining paths to health careers and invites interested students to browse through them. All majors are invited to come and ask questions.

June 9, 2 p. m., in E 128, John Comer, director of employment at Rush Presbyterian-St. Lukes Hospital, will talk about employment and Presbyterian and hospital employment in general. There are a number of hospitals employing administrative trainees and even assisting them financially in furthering careers in hospital administration.

If possible, Comer will be assisted by another representative who will talk about B.A. graduates interested in nursing and technical programs involving nuclear medicine.

June 10, Barbara Vance, director of the Detroit Teacher Corps program, will be, in the placement office conference room, 9:30 a. m. - 4:30 p. m., to talk with persons interested in the program which is geared to those persons seeking advancement in special education. A complete report with more details will be posted on the placement bulletin board when received. Signup sheets are available in the placement office.

Persons interested in careers in environmental controls should attend the career session a week from today, June 14, at 2 p. m. in E 128. James Knott of the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Greater Chicago will explain about employment and qualifications required for applicants in this area. All majors are invited but the session should be of particular interest to chemistry and biology majors.

Cookbooks for Sale

Two hundred fifty recipes for $2.50--a penny a recipe--is what you get when you buy the cookbook made up by the Student Council for Exceptional Children which will be on sale by the auditorium, 11 a. m. - 5 p. m., June 8 and 10.

Proceeds from the sale will go to defray the expenses incurred by members' attending the 49th International Convention of the Council for Exceptional Children in Miami Beach the week of April 18.

Students attending the convention were Davia Baldauf, Linda Bouquest, Bea Hammonds, Dianne Gorman, Corrine Jones, Sandy Regula, Kiril Thompson, Eva Ortiz, Sue Vestuto, Suzanne Cook, and Fred Frederick. Faculty members attending were Dr. Mary Kooyumjian, Dr. Glen Thompson, and Mrs. Mary Rose Evans.

Frederick was the delegate to the delegate assembly. The others attending took part in many meetings and learning sessions which were held.

Eat at any time

Cliff Harralson, commuter center director, has announced that general merchandizers have been placed in each lounge and the coffee shop. Persons wishing a snack during the hours the cafeteria is closed will be able to purchase fresh fruit, sandwiches, jello, salad and various desserts from the merchandizers.
