WOMEN'S STUDIES WEEK AND HEALTH FAIR COMBINE FOR A DYNAMIC MARCH 21-25

Women's Studies Week, as proclaimed by President Lamb, will be held during March 21-25 and will consist of a full schedule of activities, coordinated by the Women's Studies Program. The 35 scheduled events include lectures, videos, films, discussions, and programs on "Radical Feminism," "Music of Women Composers," sexual harassment, Hispanic women in politics, drug abuse, women and the American health care system, feminist Sonia Johnson, and poet Alice Fulton, and many other themes and issues.

The Women's Resources and Health Fair, sponsored by Health Services, Women's Services, and Women's Studies, will be held Tuesday, March 22, in Alumni Hall at 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. and 6:00-8:00 p.m. The Health Fair will present demonstrations on aerobics and self-defense, and show videos on a variety of timely topics.

Admission is free to all the events. For more information on Women's Studies Week, call extension 3308; for information on the Health Fair, call 3453.

PRESIDENT LAMB'S OPEN HOURS

The scheduled open hours period for President Lamb to meet with faculty and A&P this month is Thursday, March 24, at 10:30 a.m. in his office.

CIVIL SERVICE EMPLOYEES HONORED

Employees who have completed five, ten, fifteen, and twenty years of service will be honored at the university's Eighth Annual Civil Service Awards Ceremony. Peter Wollstein, vice president, administrative affairs, and Cyrille Brennan, admissions and records, will address the audience. The vice presidents will present the employees from their areas to receive awards. President Gordon H. Lamb will make the awards presentations. Coming as guests to represent the state system are Walter G. Ingerski, director of the State Universities Civil Service System, and Emil Petersen, deputy director. Faculty and staff are invited to attend the presentations on Friday, March 25, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in CC-217. Refreshments will be served, courtesy of the Civil Service Council.

"DANCE FANTASTIC" PRESENTED BY DANCE ENSEMBLE

Northeastern's Dance Ensemble will perform "Dance Fantastic" on Tuesday, March 22, and Thursday, March 24, at 12:30 p.m., and at 8:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 24, and Friday, March 25. Award-winning pieces are included in a collage of various types of dances, choreographed by students and guest artists. This production of "Dance Fantastic" is presented in collaboration with Joel Hall, artistic director of the Joel Hall Dancers, and Nana Shineflug, artistic director of the Chicago Moving Company. Admission is free to Northeastern faculty, staff, and students with an I.D. For more information, contact the Dance Ensemble at extension 2983.
